Gathering Prayer

Ever present God, when we gather in your name, we are changed. There is no way around it. We cannot come together in your presence and not be moved. So, today we surrender to your moving and to the ways you desire to change us. Let this time together be sacred, and may your name be exalted. You are holy, worthy and full of glory. We are humbled to be here in your presence. Receive our worship as an offering of praise. It is all for you. Amen.
